

It does not require consent to play. You are in.

One cannot refuse to play The Game.
One can never stop playing The Game.

Everyone in the world is playing The Game.

Whenever one thinks of the game... One Loses.

RULE TWO

RULE ONE

RULE THREE

Losses must be announced.

This can be verbal with phrases like: "I just lost The Game."

Could be a social post, zine, text (sorry Mike), any form of communication to players.

Some folks give a half an hour grace period to forget The Game once one remember.

Others sabotage players into thinking about The Game.

I honestly don't know how many of my friends are playing but for the last couple of years it has popped up.

There are no winners to the game, and everyone is involved which makes it interesting.

I lost The Game on Christmas and now am stuck in a rut of thinking about The Game.

Hopefully I will go back to not loosing soon... but I'm taking you all down with me.

Enjoy

DISCLAIMER THIS IS ABOUT THE GAME

If you are playing The Game and don't want to loose forget this right now.

If you don't know what I am talking about... welcome to The Game.
